DEAD

If you stop to think about it you will understand that drugs can leave all their life and power. All the physician's skill and druggists' accuracy can be brought to nought by dead drugs. Dead drugs are really dead stock. Dead stock means dull trade. Our business wouldn't let us accumulate dead stock if we tried—and we're not trying. If you want live drugs come to the live store.

MR. J. W. BAILEY.

Last Night at West Washington Street Baptist Church.

Last night at West Washington street Baptist church, Mr. J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, editor of the Biblical Recorder, spoke to a packed congregation.

Mr. Bailey is a young man of deep learning, and his excellent discourse, which showed the most careful preparation, was listened to with the greatest degree of pleasurable interest. He took no text, but upon the theme of the grand and glorious, noble, elevating and purifying and enlightening influence of the Bible in the world, he held the concentrated attention of the audience for more than an hour.

We have space to only give a brief synopsis of the speaker's remarks.

He went back into the centuries and to the birth of the Word, when it came finding a world given to vice, a peasantry and a philosophy to moral abandon; a Roman literature sunken to amorous odes, and Greece preaching her gospel of virtue. But there was no uplifting for the soul of man. Men committed suicide for lack of something better to do. The Bible came with a carpenter for its minister and poor peasantry and fishermen for its advocates. It came standing for truth and liberty, light and freedom. Luxury, lust, hate, and profligacy ruled the world. It came appealing to the heart, in the fullness of time working its way to the heart, until the Roman empire was honeycombed with those who looked for the coming of Christ. It destroyed the Roman monuments and Grecian statuary, bringing peace to the soul which men had never known before.

Throughout the dark ages, when Chaos reigned, one thing survived, the Bible—it comes to us down through the ages, bringing new faith to the world—hope and life. It now rules half the world and light is breaking on the other half.

He related how Mahomet established his religion, till he had thousands of worshippers—his co-religionists grew to such numbers that the powers of the crescent marshaled their forces against the cross. The banner of the crescent fell.

The Old Book has fought many fights and won many victories. But the struggle is not yet over. The islands of the seas are to be conquered. Men are dying out of Christ. We must carry to them its message. Its victories are not won by nations, but by individuals. No man, from the time of Saul of Tarsus down to the present day, has ever been converted save through the instrumentality of some man or woman. It is not God's will that the world has not been converted to Him. Let us go forth to victory, shod with the Word of God and armed with never-dying faith, following a Captain who has never lost a victory.

To Thinking People.

Some people insult the public intelligence by offering to sell something for nothing. All business men know that reputable manufacturers sell through recognized distributors and that all offers to retail at factory prices are efforts to mislead.

It costs a factory as much to put a man in a given territory as it costs the man who puts himself there, and other things being equal the man who sells in his own name will try harder to please than the factory representative.

These remarks are addressed to the thinking people—words are wasted on people who don't think.

Call and see me and I will tell you lots of things about "factory prices" and retail dealers' margins on pianos and organs.

What's the Matter?

Somebody was recently afraid that Greensboro was overdoing the thing in the matter of putting up new buildings. A real estate and rent agency man told the Telegram that he had, in the last day or two, had no less than half a dozen applications for desirable business houses. Somebody's opinion is at fault, or else facts are not facts. Which is it?

Men's genuine box calf shoes, Tuxedo cut and full leather lined, tan and black, in winter weight, are sold by Thacker & Brockmann at three dollars a pair.

Going to Sea.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 18.—An agent of the British government is negotiating with a local firm for a thousand pack mules for use in South Africa. They will be shipped via New Orleans.

CORDIAL WELCOME

New York, Sept. 18.—The battleship Kearsarge came up from Tompkinsville this morning to the navy yard to be docked. She presented a pretty spectacle and was welcomed with a great din of whistles.

WINSTON-SALEM NEWS.

Fishing Party Gone to Morehead.
Wilkes County Recruits.

Special to THE TELEGRAM

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 18.—W. C. Briggs, H. W. Fries and Will Shaffner, of Salem, went to Morehead City today on a fishing trip.

Eight recruits from Wilkes county passed through here Saturday evening enroute to Greensboro to enlist in the army at the recruiting office there.

Mrs. Miss, wife of J. W. Miss, of this city, died yesterday morning at the home of her mother in Irredell county. Mrs. Miss went to the scene of death Saturday night.

W. F. Valentine, who has been serving a 3-years term in the army, returned to his home here from the Philippines Saturday night. His term expires August 6.

Miss Emma Lineback, of Salem, has accepted a position as teacher of vocal music in Presbyterian College at Charlotte.

THERE WERE TWO FIRES.

But Only One Alarm—Both Put Out
With Slight Damage.

About nine o'clock Saturday night fire was discovered in one of the boarders' rooms in the Hodgkin flats on South Elm street. Mr. John Lewis, an alert fireman, happened to be near and saw a man running to turn in the alarm. Hastily taking in the situation Mr. Lewis stopped him and rushing into the room the flames were quickly extinguished. The bed was aflame and a lot of clothing belonging to a Mr. Webster, the occupant of the room, was ruined. It is thought the fire was caused by smoking. The loss is only slight.

The alarm of fire was turned in yesterday at one o'clock from box 42. The blaze proved to be in a trash pile next to the railroad in the rear of Grissom & Fordham's drugstore. It is supposed that some one smoking threw a cigar or cigarette stump from the train as it went out a short while before and in that way the trash was ignited. The fire was extinguished without the aid of the fire department.

A FINE RATING.

The Excellent Grade of Butter Produced at the Colored A. & M.

The butter produced at the colored Agricultural and Mechanical College of this city is as fine as can be found anywhere in the state probably, and is made entirely by the students.

It has been scored in the Chicago markets and notwithstanding the fact that the sample sent was delayed in Chicago for ten days before it was scored, it received the following rating:

Annie Worth Howard Dead.

This morning at 2:30 o'clock the death of Annie Worth Howard, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Howard, occurred at the home, 901 Bilbro street in South Greensboro, of fever. The funeral was conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the residence, and the loved form of the little girl laid away in an earthly tomb to await the final summons from above.

The desire of loving hearts and the efforts of faithful hands could not detain her, and she was taken. A home is shrouded in sorrow, but the bereaved can find comfort and solace in the thought that the life of childhood begun on earth can reach a more splendid and sublimer womanhood in heaven than it could ever attain here.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU
HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 18.

Mrs. Ida Beeson spent Sunday with her mother here.

Capt. T. J. Redding spent Saturday evening in the city.

John A. Lindsay represents High Point in Greensboro today.

Deputy Parish is able to be out again after a long confinement.

Don't forget the free musical concert at the opera house tonight.

Mrs. Bostie returned Saturday evening from a visit to Beville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Flen Norman came up from Steeds Saturday evening.

Married at Jamestown yesterday, Will Young and Laura Laughlin.

Clyde Curlee, clerk in the depot at Winston, spent Sunday in the city.

Miss Nellie Makepeace, who has been visiting here left this morning.

Mrs. J. H. Tate went to Jackson Springs Saturday to spend several days.

Miss Annetta Tate is organist at the M. E. church in the absence of Mrs. Farris.

Mrs. Laura S. Farris is visiting relatives in Lincoln and Catawba counties.

Presiding Elder Wood occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church yesterday, morning and night.

R. v. J. R. Parker preached at Piney Woods' Friends' church near Thomasville yesterday.

Miss Lucy White, of Raleigh, who has been visiting Miss Maud Jordan returned home Saturday.

The boys have laid off a nice tennis court on the college grounds and are playing the game right along.

R. L. Ellington, of Reidsville, and Paul C. Van Lendley, of Pomona, were guests of this city yesterday.

Mrs. David Hodgecock died last night near Orlando and will be buried at Shady Grove tomorrow morning.

Miss Nipo Dillard, of Lynch's, Va., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Ragan, returned home this morning.

A Mr. Verner, of Lexington, passed through Saturday evening with the corpse of his infant, enroute to Randleman for burial.

The coldest house ever constructed: Contractor (Fries) built a house for Mrs. (Frost) and (now) Lumber Co. furnished the material!

Quite a crowd of young men went to Thomasville on the 7:12 local last evening and returned on the 9:13 train. What's the attraction, boys?

Lorenzo Leach died of dropsy at his home in Trinity Saturday night, aged 67 years. His remains were interred in the cemetery at Trinity yesterday evening at 3 o'clock.

A man by the name of Millington, who works at one of the factories here, and a lady whose name we cannot learn, were married by Squire Guyer at his home near here yesterday.

Rev. H. J. Hartell, a graduate of West Maryland college filled the pulpit at the M. P. church yesterday, morning and night, preaching two excellent sermons to crowded houses.

Services at Lebanon or Benedict church were largely attended yesterday. We learn that Rev. W. C. Hamner has been doing some good work among his people since the meeting began.

Geo. Barker, of Thomasville, spent Sunday with his parents here. He wants to go to the Philippines, having already sent in his application, but as he is not of age his father will have to sign it before he can enlist.

Poisoning dogs and stealing the same is being practiced to some extent in this city. A while back several fine dogs were kidnapped from their owners and about the same amount was paid for unknown parties. Only last week a valuable bird dog was stolen and another given strychnine.

The negro who stole a bicycle from Montgomery & Farley here Saturday night was captured in Greensboro yesterday. Mr. Farley went down this morning and identified his wheel. On the negro's person were found a pistol, three brand new pocket knives and a dozen or more plugs of tobacco. The trial will take place in Greensboro.

A gentleman who attended the meeting yesterday at Randleman, being conducted by Rev. Hodgkin, the sanctificationist, reports a good attendance and a general awakening on the line of sanctification. He also tells us of a prank played upon the minister. An empty barrel is kept around the place of worship (a tent) in which the lamps, lamp chimneys and other articles are stored after services. One night last week a fellow gave the barrel a kick, which sent it rolling down a long hill, breaking its contents into a thousand pieces. A mean trick—not a smart one, by any means.

THE CRISIS IS AT HAND.

The Nation of England Feels War in the Air.

A CABINET COUNCIL CALLED

For Wednesday—Panic Along the Border—Camps of Refugees Being Established.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Pietermaritzburg, Sept. 18.—News of the mobilization of the Boer forces on the frontier has caused a widespread panic in this city and the borough of Natal. Many families have fled to the Cape and hundreds of others are packing, fearing a Boer raid at any moment.

LONDON EXPECTS WAR.

London, Sept. 18.—A council of the cabinet has been called to meet Wednesday. The whole nation feels that a crisis is at hand. The general sentiment is that the council meeting means war.

The war office today announced that the total fighting force in or on the way to South Africa numbers 49,000.

PANIC ON THE BORDER.

Johannesburg, Sept. 18.—There is a general panic along the border. Families of Boers are hurrying into camps for safety when hostilities open for fear that a general dash will be made by one side or the other that will bring on a clash without warning. Camps of refugees have been established at Amersfoort and other parts of the province of Wakerstrom.

AN EARLY COUP.

Johannesburg, Sept. 18.—The correspondent of the London Times is informed that some early coup is in contemplation. The quantities of compressed forage being forwarded in the direction of the frontier, indicate some movement of troops in the Natal quarter.

STOCK MARKET AFFECTED.

London, Sept. 18.—The Transvaal situation is unchanged. The general apprehension in regard to the outcome is reflected by the decline in stocks.

WHITSETT ITEMS.

The Football Team Reorganized—A Protracted Meeting.

Correspondence Telegram

Whitsett, N. C., Sept. 17.—A protracted meeting begins. Literary entertainment next feature. Arrival of students. List of visitors.

W. F. Ward, student, ran up to Salisbury Sunday.

Mr. Frank Spoon, of Burlington, was seen yesterday among the many visitors.

George W. Hooker was called home a few days ago by the death of his grandmother.

The Whitsett football team was reorganized last Friday evening with a good enrollment.

"Booker" Cobb, of Elon College, was over Sunday to be present at the protracted services.

A. T. Walker and Roland R. Mason, both students, visited the latter's home near Graham Sunday last.

J. B. Hayworth, "our little Barker," spooned around Saturday last and returned and reported a swell time.

It is the desire of Professor Whitsett to have a literary play as soon as possible. Scenes will be taken from Shakespeare's "Hamlet," "Merchant of Venice," "Macbeth," etc.

At the meeting held by the Dialectic Literary Society a few days ago the following officers were elected: A. H. Olive, president; H. V. Stewart, vice-president; J. B. Hayworth, secretary.

Rev. J. D. Andrew, of Burlington, was up Sunday, and as usual delivered a logical sermon. His theme was "The Christian's Hope." Quite a good crowd was present at yesterday's sermon. He announced that there would be a protracted meeting during the week and that he would have Rev. Hallock, of High Point, to assist him.

COMES TOO LATE.

Dreyfus Positively Informed of His Pardon.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Renness, Sept. 13.—Dreyfus has been positively informed of his pardon tomorrow. He seemed comparatively indifferent.

PRESIDENT AT ELYSE.

Paris, Sept. 18.—The president is at Elyse in consultation with the minister of Justice. He will sign Dreyfus' pardon at once.

A reception will be given Booker T. Washington, the colored educator, at Atlanta, Ga., upon his return from Europe.

The melancholy days have come—The saddest of the year—When old straw hats are on the burs, And derbies are too dear.

PERISHED IN REACH OF FOOD.

Strange Death Brought to Light at Hillsboro.

Mr. O. Williams, of this city, tells the Telegram that while at Hillsboro last Friday he was shown the dried and hardened bodies of a cat and a rat which met death in a most unusual and strange manner. The cat had one tooth stuck in the shoulder of the rat, and in this position they both died. It is possible the bodies have been in this condition for over a hundred years.

This strange case was brought to light in the following manner: An old building which formerly belonged to the Badgetts, was recently purchased by Mr. S. E. Cole, a merchant in Hillsboro. The building was erected long before the revolutionary war: Mr. Cole recently employed a Mr. Cooley to take the old house down, and it was while engaged in this work that the remarkable specimen was found.

Away up in the boxing near the caves of the house the rat had been chased by the cat to a point over behind the top plate and had forced themselves into such a narrow crevice that they could get out, neither could the cat eat the rat. In this position the cat with one tooth stuck in the rat's shoulder, they both perished to death, and now, after the lapse of nobody can tell how many years, their bodies are dried and shrunken mummies.

Mr. Cooley now has in his possession these specimens in the same position in which they were found, and they will be on exhibition at the coming State Fair at Raleigh.

If He Is Pardon.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

London, Sept. 18.—Labor and Mme. Dreyfus have arrived at Folkestone, a house to which Dreyfus will be taken with his children in case of his pardon.

Thanksgiving Dewey Day.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 18.—The governor has appointed the 29th and 30th holidays throughout the state for thanksgiving in honor of Dewey.

Great Britain is preparing to submit to the Transvaal her thirteenth ultimatum.

The Livingstone (Tenn.) Crescent announces that there is "no school this week, as people are pulling fodder."

North Carolina has three newspapers of which any state might feel proud. The Sunday issues of the Charlotte Observer, the Raleigh Morning Post and the News and Observer are quite metropolitan these days. Eliminate from the New York World and its yellow contemporary, the Journal, their pages and pages of sensational garbage-rot, and their mammoth imaginative illustrations, and in pure, elevating reading matter, how far can they eclipse our home papers?

According to Manila local newspapers received at Hong Kong two American soldiers have been sentenced to death and another to imprisonment for twenty years after trial by court martial for having assaulted native women. The crime, according to the same authority, had greatly aroused the native population, and General Otis has recently requested President McKinley to approve the findings of the court martial, and recommended a public execution of the condemned men as a warning to others.

We are pleased that Admiral Schley is about to take to the sea again. In offering him the command of the South Atlantic Squadron, the navy department could not have chosen a better general to look after Uncle Sam's southern affairs. This proffered station embraces South Africa, and as there are likely to be stormy times in those waters at some early day, every American in that dark country, far from his native land, would feel a great deal securer with Schley in holing distance with his ocean thunderbolts.

Emperor William confines his newspaper reading to press clippings specially prepared for him, and pasted on gilt-edged foolscap paper. This should afford an excellent idea to President McKinley. By reason of the overwhelming bulk of the "cussing-out" newspaper articles on his Philippine policy, it would be folly and confusion to attempt to read even a small per cent of them. He should employ several hundred clerks to prepare and submit to him the choicest, most vituperative editorials, after Emperor William's plan, and in this manner His Jagge could easily effect a rise in stationery besides gaining a clearer and more succinct idea of what the people think of him as an Imperialist president.

Boothblack Ordinance.

At a meeting of the board of aldermen held on Friday night, Sept. 15th, the following ordinance was passed: Be it ordained by the Board of Aldermen of the city of Greensboro, N. C.:

That all persons engaging in the business of polishing boots and shoes, commonly known as boothblack, shall pay a license of Three Dollars ($3.00) per year and shall wear a numbered badge, said badge to be furnished free by the chief of police. Any person engaging in the business, without having paid the license tax and without having in conspicuous place on his clothing the said badge, shall be fined five dollars ($5) for each offense, provided this ordinance shall not apply to the boothblacks employed in barber shops.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

BY J. W. TILLINGHAST.

[All communications intended for this department should be sent to J. W. Tillinghast, 415 Eugene street. All notices for publication should be handed in not later than 9 o'clock Monday.]

This is the season of brass bands—last week the circus band regaled the small boy, and incidentally the large man, with rag-time selections galore, and this week we are to have the minstrels.

Is this music? Quite a large majority of those who hear a good circus or minstrel band are of the opinion that it's music. Quite a small minority of musicians would probably hold that it is mostly noise. Doubtless both are right—each from his own point of view, but the musician who thinks must be forced to wonder, as he sees a crowd made enthusiastic by the inspiring strains of a good march by a military band, to wonder how far he may legitimately go in the way of meeting the popular taste in music.

Undoubtedly there is a great deal of very excellent music fired off above the heads of those who ought to be impressed by it. Also, it is often fired into empty benches, which ought to be filled with people—who ought to be able to appreciate it—we are so fond of saying what-ought-to-be. But as a matter of fact, there is quite a great deal of music that is both excellent and understandable by the general public that might be utilized for the gradual drawing up of the listener to the plane more in sympathy with the musician of high culture. Culture music is an acquired taste and the musician who would instill it into his constituency must administer it in small doses at first—with a good deal of judicious disguising, and so the circus band, and the minstrel band, while not direct agents for municipal advancement, are little helps in little ways.

There is, I believe, a movement on foot to establish an orchestra for the Sunday-school of West Market Street M. E. Church. Apart from any religious value that this may have—which I believe may be made very considerable—it is much to be welcomed. The necessity for music in the church and the effort put forth to furnish it have in the times constituted one of the strongest factors in the progress of music. It does not yet appear when the orchestra will be organized, but let us hope that it will start with a solid purpose at an early date.

Following is the proposed instrumentation of the great festival orchestra which may be used at the Paris exposition next year: 120 violins, 40 violas, 40 cellos, 18 three-string basses, 15 four-string basses, 4 octo basses, 10 flutes, 4 piccolos, 6 oboes, 6 English horns, 6 saxophones, 16 bassoons, 15 clarinets, 16 horns, 8 trumpets, 6 cornets, 12 trombones, 3 euphoniums, 2 tubas, 30 harps, 30 pianos, 1 organ, 8 pair kettle drums, 6 side drums, 3 bass drums, 4 cymbals, 6 triangles, 6 glockenspiel, 20 various other specialties.

How is that for large?

"However it be looked at, the introduction of the study of music in the common schools is bound to play an important part in the spread of the love and understanding of music among coming generations; and no community can afford to allow its school board to neglect a matter of such far reaching consequence."—The Etude.

Miss Lizzie Crocker has been offered a position in Richmond, Va., by Mr. Chas. J. Brockmann, and will probably accept.

Funny Paragraphs.

Love may laugh at locksmiths, but its mighty deferential to goldsmiths.

An uptown man is so fond of an argument that he won't eat anything that agrees with him.

"It's 'now' or 'never,'" remarked the compositor. And he made it "now where it should have been 'never'."

Collector—"This debt, sir, has been standing for several months." Hand-up—"Well, I should think if that's the case, it would be a charity to let it rest."

"There's such a thing," remarked the carpenter after hitting his thumb nail for the second time, "as a man being altogether too painstaking in his work."

"I'm afraid we can't use this poem," said the editor. "You wouldn't call home rhyme for cyclone, would you?" "Well," returned the visitor promptly, "out west where I live they generally go together."

Instructor—"I presume you are acquainted with the regulations governing this competition. If so, what induced you to submit a sketch of a messenger boy?" Student—"Why, the rules distinctly state that the prize is offered for a study in still life."

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

THE BENBOW CASE.

Judge Ewart Hands Down His Decision.

Judge Ewart, at Hendersonville, has handed down the following opinion: Southern Loan and Trust Company vs. D. W. C. Benbow, et al., Guilford County.

In this case it is decided, "That where a state court declared a deed of assignment made by the debtor under the state insolvent laws, fraudulent and void as to creditors, that the estate of the bankrupt vested so instant in the trustee of Benbow, who a month before this decree had been adjudicated a bankrupt."

"That where material facts had been concealed from the court, and a collusive judgment procured as between the bankrupt and his son, a fraud had been practiced upon the state court, and a Federal court, sitting as a court of bankruptcy, with equitable jurisdiction, will not force a trustee to go into the state court to secure control of the estate of the bankrupt."

"That a trustee may sell the said estate free from all liens or incumbrances, and hold the funds so realized, subject to all valid liens against the bankrupt estate."

"That a receiver appointed in 1894, in proceedings supplementary to execution, and who, in the five years following his appointment as such, takes no steps to recover the estate fraudulently assigned, except to bring suit for the recovery of two notes alleged to have been fraudulently assigned, and in which suit there was an adverse judgment against the receiver, cannot now, after the bankruptcy of the debtor, take possession of the said estate, and thereby oust the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court."

NEURO GIRL KILLED.

John Farrow Ends the Life of Ada Bennett at Salisbury.

Ada Bennett, a colored girl of about 17 years of age, was shot and instantly killed at Salisbury Saturday night by a negro named John Farrow. Farrow and the girl met near the corner of Branks and Lane streets. They engaged in conversation, and passers by heard the girl ask Farrow to change some money for her. He took the money—about a quarter—and started off. She called him and said to him: "You don't mean to take my money." He came back and said, "Hush. Did you say anything to me?" Just as he said the words there was the report of a pistol, and the girl fell to the ground. A number of persons were passing, all of whom rushed to the spot where the girl fell. Dr. J. W. Long was of the number. The girl breathed for a few minutes but life was practically extinct from the moment the ball struck her, it having passed through her heart.

Farrow ran as soon as he did the shooting but returned with one of the Messrs. Newman. He said the shooting was accidental; that he was flourishing the pistol as a bluff, when it went off. The man was arrested and placed in jail. He will have a preliminary hearing tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Big Cotton Mill to Be Built.

A company was organized at Durham Saturday afternoon for the erection of a $400,000 cotton mill. T. B. Fuller is president; Geo. W. Watts, vice-president; J. S. Carr, Rufus L. Patterson and others directors. The mill will be located in the eastern part of the city and work will begin at once. This is the mill Col. Carr has had in contemplation for some months. It will be one of the largest mills in the state.

Killed By the Train.

Sherman Pathay, a negro, was killed on the Southern road at Durham Saturday evening while trying to steal a ride from East Durham uptown. Both legs were cut off. He lived an hour.

Tommy—"Pop, what is a protective tariff?" Tommy's Pop—"A protective tariff, my boy, is—ah—well, it is sometimes what gamblers and other wicked persons pay for not being disturbed."

DeWitt's Little Early Risers permanently cure chronic constipation, biliousness, nervousness and worn-out feeling; cleanse and regulate the entire system. Small, pleasant, never gripe or sicken—"famous little pills." Howard Gardner.

The Chamber of Commerce of Huntsville, Ala., has invited President McKinley to attend the coming Industrial Convention.

"Best on the market for coughs and colds and all bronchial troubles; for croup it has no equal," writes Henry R. Whitford, South Canaan, Conn., of One Minute Cough Cure. Howard Gardner.

The Chicago Building Trades' Council intend to order a general strike on the new postoffice building, to enforce employment of union labor.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Bolton's drug store.

SAN DOMINGO FINANCES.

Discussing the Possibility of Holding Presidential Election Immediately.

Santo Domingo, Sept. 16.—The government's proclamation yesterday denying the value of paper money created such violent opposition that the Ministers today proclaimed the acceptance of paper at the same rates as silver, namely, five to one dollar, American. This concession was made by Jimine, who proposed repudiating paper money.

The cabinet is discussing the feasibility of holding the presidential election immediately, instead of in November as provided by the constitution and it will probably announce tomorrow that the election is to take place this month as Jimine is the only candidate.

The threatened riots have not taken place. All is quiet here.

From Our Standpoint

Cost is No Consideration
Value is No Consideration
Profit is No Consideration

The objective point of our business at this time is to realize cash from our goods and accounts. We have made prices on our stock which ought to move it in the limited time at our disposal. This is our side of the question.

From Your Standpoint

Price is Some Consideration
Value is Greater Consideration

These two elements, combined as they now are in our store, are arguments clear, cogent and convincing. Greater values for less money than you can approach elsewhere. If we have what you want, we can be of substantial benefit to you. Call and see us.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

The police report a very quiet Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Lucy Dick and Miss McKay, of Wilmington, returned today from Mt. Airy White Sulphur Springs.

The chancellor commander requests a full attendance at the meeting of Greenboro Lodge No. 80, K. of P. tonight.

Another mammoth freight engine, built by the Richmond Locomotive Works, passed here yesterday for the N. & N. railroad.

Procrastination is the thief of time—don't wait until it is too late to take up your fire, life or accident policy. Lead Murray Bros. ad.

John Lewis went to Graham this morning to put up and adjust some arm machinery sold to L. Banks (old) by C. C. Townsend.

The funeral of Rev. Mr. Schmidt's will be held from the residence on 1st street yesterday afternoon and afternoon made in Greene Hill.

Miss Flora Harrisell is now in the northern markets buying the fall stock of millinery goods for S. G. Hodgins & Co. Mr. Hodgins is also there buying dry goods, shoes, notions, etc.

J. M. Hendrix & Co. have their new line of fall and winter shoes ready for inspection and advertise them in their space on the front page. This firm is prepared to prove all statements made in their advertisement.

Messrs. F. O. Lawson and Clarence Bogart have received their new horns. Mr. Lawson's is a solo cornet and Mr. Bogart's a slide trombone, and they are both high grade instruments of beautiful design and finish.

Members of section 702, Endowment Rank, K. of P., who desire to pay premiums on their insurance will find Mr. G. H. Royster in his office in the new Wright building. Mr. Royster will also receipt for membership dues.

W. J. Blackburn was at home from Fayetteville to spend Sunday with his family. "Jap," as his intimate friends call him, is a hustler, and says the tobacco market in Fayetteville is coming along nicely. He returned at noon today.

Up to this writing nine boot-blacks have paid the tax to shine shoes on the streets. It was intended by the author of the new ordinance that shiners in the hotels should be exempt along with those in the barber shops, but by an oversight they were omitted.

Lea Brothers, who for more than a year have been conducting a mercantile business in the Groome building, corner South Elm and Lee streets, are moving their stock of goods to Dalton, on the Mt. Airy branch of the Southern, where they will continue business.

Fast mail train No. 36 was one hour late today, thus holding the Raleigh, Wilmington and Winston trains. Waiting for late trains is not as uncomfortable here now as it used to be. The comforts of the new depot have not grown to be old yet, and it is pleasant to sojourn there awhile.

It has been said that the dispensary hurts the town because some people drive out to distilleries Saturday evenings and spend all their money. Will somebody please tell the public what advantage such people are to the town anyhow? If it is a married man his family would be better off without him, taking the statement for granted that he spends ALL his money there. And it would not help the case any if he spent it the dispensary. But we believe there are more people who are not quite so "tough," who now on Saturday evenings spend more of their money for provisions for their families than they used to. There is evidence at hand to prove it.

Mrs. John W. Stewart Dead.

Mrs. John W. Stewart died at the home of her son, M. C. Stewart, 235 East Washington street, today about 11 o'clock. She was also the mother of J. E. Stewart, of the Southern railway, at Charlotte, and C. M. Stewart, of Milan, Tenn. Her husband died about eighteen months ago.

Mrs. Stewart was born October 8, 1832, and in early life became a member of Bethel Presbyterian Church. After her marriage she transferred her membership to Alamance church, at which place the funeral will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock and interment made. The funeral party will leave the home about one o'clock tomorrow with the remains.

Notice Knights of Honor.

There will be a regular meeting at K. of P. Hall on Tuesday night, September 19th at 8 o'clock. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Bicycle Thief Caught.

Sam Williams, colored, stole a Victor bicycle from a repair shop in High Point Saturday night. Yesterday morning the police of this city were furnished the number of the wheel and about 11 o'clock Policeman Pearce saw a strange darkey rolling a good looking wheel along Davis street. He approached him, saw it was a Victor and at once arrested the man. The number on the wheel corresponded with that in the message. Officer Cates assisted in the arrest.

A big supply of tobacco, several pocket knives and a big pistol were found on him, and he is now in jail, bound over to court on two counts—stealing and carrying concealed weapons.

A "Cusser" Arrested.

Alf Mabry, a colored man living at Proximity, yesterday morning reported to Chief Scott that another negro was "cusser" up" out there, that he had "cusser" out a white woman, and then went into Alf's house and began cursing him. "I throwed him out of the house," said Alf, "and now want a warrant for him." The chief told him as it was out of town he would have to see a magistrate.

Alf acted on this suggestion, got the warrant, and was deputized to arrest and bring in the man, which he did in short order and turned him over to the authorities.
